“ Roland was a wonderful father-in-law and the patriarch of 5 generations. He was much loved and admired. His strength and low key (corny) humor were treasured.

Wrestling with grandpa is a memory that both participants and onlookers will keep in their hearts. When my 2 boys "attacked" it was full on move the furniture fun.

Grandpa won every time. He continued with great grandson Declan well into his 90's when his arm strength allowed him to wrestle from a chair.

Rest with Dorothy and the angels sweet man. Memories of both of you will live on.
